

June 25, 2007 - Reese joins staff at Granite Community Bank

New Mexico Native Brings Over 20 Years Experience as Controller

Granite Community Bank, N.A. has named Judy Reese as its new controller. She will report to David Caulkins, the Bank's Chief Financial Officer.

Reese brings considerable work experience to her duties with Granite Community Bank, which has locations in Roseville, Auburn and Granite Bay. She has spent over 30 years in the banking industry, including the past 21 as a controller while living in Roswell, N.M. Reese worked the past seven years as a Vice President/Controller for First Federal Bank, which has 13 branches in New Mexico and Texas.

"I feel like this is a great fit for me," Reese said. "I grew up in a community bank and worked there for 20 years. Community banks are like family to me. I am excited about maintaining the high standards that have already been established at Granite Community Bank."

Judy will be an addition to the accounting/operations staff and help the Bank with its financial reporting.

"This was a great hire for us, we were very lucky to find a controller with that much experience and expertise," said David Kaiser, the Bank's President and Chief Executive Officer. "Judy is a wonderful addition to our staff."
